

KBC Elections 2022, Aspirants Website

Terms and Conditions

- Kenya Broadcasting Corporation (KBC) will upload aspirants' content on the KBC Elections website on their behalf.
- The aspirants will share data and information regarding their candidature with KBC for upload.
- The aspirant's information will be loaded on the website as it is, and no special sections will be created for any aspirants.
- The aspirant's portraits will be displayed in random, to ensure fairness across the website.
- The aspirant will be required to provide accurate, timely and true information about themselves to KBC. An editor will be assigned to cross check aspirants' content. If information is found to be inaccurate, the aspirant profile will be disabled, until it is rectified.
- KBC will have the right to upload or reject content, if it deems not accurate and misrepresents the facts.
- KBC will be able to deactivate a candidate profile if during the period of campaign, information provided by the candidate is found to be inaccurate or misleading.
- KBC will not be held liable for any misrepresentation, inaccurate or misleading information about the aspirants on the election's website.
- KBC will be able to host aspirants' videos on its special video channel, for streaming, if the aspirant doesn't have a YouTube / video channel.
- The aspirant will provide a brief Bio, past achievements and plans if elected, to KBC for upload.
- The aspirant will provide social media links, video message link, passport photo and portrait to KBC for upload.
- Aspirants will make payment to feature on the elections website as per the rate card, but will only continue to feature after nomination, when they have been nominated by a political party or are vying as independent candidates.

- If the candidate paid before nomination, and fails to be nominated by a political party, for whichever reason, or are not vying as independent candidate as approved by IEBC, they will be removed from the KBC election website, with no refund for the money paid.
- The payment made by the aspirant will be a one-off payment to August election and the candidate will not pay any other additional money to continue featuring beyond nomination.
- The aspirant is required provide the true color and symbol if vying as independent candidate or color, symbol of a political party, if nominated by a registered political party approved by IEBC.
- Payments to be featured on the website will be made to KBC bank account, that will be provided on the election website.
- Aspirants will only feature after making payments to KBC as per the rate card and approved discount and have provided the required content.
- The aspirant will be required to sign a KBC Air-time order, attach a payment proof and sign this terms and conditions to officially be allowed to feature.

The aspirants, agrees with the terms and conditions stated above

Aspirants name.....

Position Vying for.....

Political party

Signature

Date.....